Next Week Second Collection is for Mission Outreach

Our Youth Ministry Program is still in need of classroom aides for Wednesday nights to help with Middle school and High school classes. If anyone can help please contact Erica Espinoza or the office. They are also asking for snacks for the youth as they begin the new year. They are asking for donations of cookies, chips, granola bars, fruit snacks, crackers, pop tarts, and lemonade mix. You can drop these off in the office.

Nuestro Ministerio Juvenil todavía está en busca de ayudantes para el catecismo de los miécoles con los jóvenes del sexto a duodécimo grado. Si alguien puede ayudar por favor comuníquese con Erica Espinoza. También están pidiendo donaciones de botanas para los jóvenes ya que comenzaran un año nuevo. Piden galletas, sabritas, barras, pop tarts, y polvo para hacer limonada.

Choir in need of Voices

If you like to sing and can carry a tune, the Sunday morning choir needs you! We are returning from summer hiatus and are starting rehearsals the first Wednesday after Labor

Day (September 7th) at 6:30 PM in the Music Room in the Family Life Center. You don't have to have a great voice or read music, and we need both men and women. If you are interested, see one of choir members or contact Jim Brandehoff. Help us raise our voices in worship!

Are You Someone or Do You Know Someone Who...

Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic? Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist? The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our Catholic faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and preparing individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. Formation classes can start at any time. The Sacraments are received at the Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday) evening service. Classes are on Sundays after the 9:00 AM Mass. For more information about RCIA at St. Frances Cabrini, please contact Steve Dixon, Director of RCIA at (817) 573-2997 or (817) 578-9206, or stdixon39@charter.net.

At this time we are just trying to get an idea of how many parishioners would be interested in joining us. If you do have an interest, please contact Carmine Esposito at cesposito1802@gmail.com or 817-455-5077.

GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14
1 Timothy 1:12-17
Psalms 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19
Luke 15:1-32

"Why, O Lord, should Your wrath blaze up against Your own people?" —Exodus 32:11

: After the Israelites sinned by adoring the golden calf, the Lord gave Moses the impression that the people belonged to Moses, not Him (Ex 32:7). Moses implored the Lord and referred to the people as belonging to the Lord (Ex 32:11).

The prodigal son felt that he no longer belonged in his father's family after what he had done (Lk 15:18, 21). His older brother agreed with him (see Lk 15:30). However, the prodigal son's father would hear none of this. He spoke of the prodigal son as "this son of mine" (Lk 15:24).

"Once you were no people, but now you are God's people" (1 Pt 2:10). We belong to God (Rm 14:8). We are a people peculiarly His own (Dt 26:18). He created and redeemed us. "You are not your own. You have been purchased, and at a price" (1 Cor 6:19-20). We are doubly owned by God.

Acknowledge that you belong to God. Rejoice to be owned by the all-powerful Creator and the all-loving Redeemer. Every day, pray and say with Paul: "I have been crucified with Christ, and the life I live now is not my own; Christ is living in me" (Gal 2:19-20). You belong to Him alone."
